

CONWY (CAERNARVONSHIRE) GOLF CLUB.

Ladies Golf at Conwy.

We have a thriving Ladies section comprising of Silver and Bronze divisions with plenty of competitive, representative and social golf to cater for all levels of playing abilities. The Ladies section is keen to welcome both new-to-golf and experienced players to join the Club.

The Club participates in several National Ladies Competitions including the Mail on Sunday Classic; Coronation Foursomes; Australian Spoons; and Daily Mail Foursomes to name but a few. The section also enters both Scratch and Handicap teams into the North Wales Challenge Shield Association Competition, playing home and away matches throughout North Wales.

Competition Days and Times.

The main competition day is Thursday.

- > Weekly competitions: - Tee times - 10.00 - 12.00
16.00 - 18.00 (April - September)
- > Major Competitions: - Tee times - 10.00 - 13.30

From April to October, Tuesdays are included in the playing diary.

Social and Competition golf; - Tee times - 9.00 - 10.15
16.00 - 18.00 (April - September)

The alternate day for weekly competitions is Sunday with tee times available around 12.00 noon from April to September. G.U.W. medals can also be played on one Sunday each month at any time of the day.

Knockouts.

Scratch and Handicap knockouts determine the Club Gross and Net Champions each year.

There is a ladies foursomes' knockout held each year.

There is a knockout cup played by qualifiers each winter.

Mixed Competitions.

There are several mixed competitions played in a variety of formats, held on Bank Holiday Mondays and an occasional Sunday. There is also a mixed foursomes knockout each year.